Josh Brown Appointed as New Athletic Director at Clinton High School

Clinton, MI – June 18, 2024 – Superintendent Kevin Beazley announced today the appointment of Josh Brown as the new Athletic Director for Clinton High School within the Clinton Community Schools district. Brown, an Adrian College graduate with a Master of Arts in Sports Management, a Bachelor of Arts in Sports Management, and a minor in Leadership & Ethics, joins Clinton High School with a distinguished background in education and athletics.

Prior to his appointment, Brown excelled academically, graduating Cum Laude and being recognized on both the Dean's List and as a member of the National Society of Leadership and Success. He most recently served at Clinton Community Schools where he held roles as a paraprofessional, games manager, and contributed extensively in coaching at both high school and youth levels.

Currently enrolled in the Talent Together program to become a certified special education teacher, Brown brings a commitment to student development both on and off the field. His experience as a member of the Adrian College football team and his internship as an Athletic Director at Madison School District have prepared him well for this leadership role.

Superintendent Kevin Beazley expressed enthusiasm for Brown's appointment, stating, "We are excited to see Josh Brown move into this new role, one that he has dreamed about since his time as a student here at Clinton High School. We consider ourselves fortunate to have him join our team and are eager to see what the future holds under his leadership."

Brown's passion for athletics and education, coupled with his dedication to student success, makes him an invaluable addition to the Clinton Community Schools district. Please join us in welcoming Josh Brown as the new Athletic Director at Clinton High School.
